Customizing the user interface

Most elements of the User Interface of your Orixa App can be customized, allowing the position, size, colour and other aspects of the layout of the App to be changed. The following article shows some of the many ways in which this is done.

Orixa "Layout" Customization

The main "surface" of most windows in Orixa Apps are a special "Layout" component, which can be customized.